THEATRICAL.

TRUE SUBSTITUTE FOR TRAVEL.

To travel to foreign lands at a trifling cost; to see the strange cities and countries you have most longed to see; these are some of the pleasures invariably derived from Lyman H. Howe's moving pictures to be seen in the Paris Grand, on Monday Dec. 16. Every picture accompanied by natural sounds and tells its own story. Not only is it unsurpassed, but it is unequalled.

FIELD'S MINSTRELS.

The A. G. Field Greater Minstrels, which will appear at the Paris Grand Tuesday night, December 17, is acknowledged by all who have seen it this season to be the greatest minstrel production ever made.

The entire production is sumptuously staged and the gold and white, pink, light blue and pale green costumes of the vocalists, comedians, dancers and orchestra are superb.

The second part or olio presents many new and thrilling features and spectacles including the beautiful production of "The Little Boy in Green." In this spectacle Mr. Field uses his beautiful pair of Arabian horses, Belle and Sultan, and Earl Flynn sings the song made famous the years ago by Helena Moro.

Absolutely Wholesome.

Seaship Oysters packed in sealed, germ-proof, porcelain-lined case, do not come in contact with ice, air or water. They are kept thoroughly chilled in airtight, Seaship Carriers. No preservatives are ever used.

Bourbon's Lead Mines.

Hon. C. M. Clay has shipped several car loads of lead ore from the lead mines, located on his beautiful farm near this city, to the Mutual Mining Company, at Switzer, Ky., having sold same to the company a few days ago at a private price.

The mines being worked by Mr. Hollinsworth, on the farms of B. B. Marsh and Dan Isgrig, are panning out satisfactorily, so we understand. These mines it will be remembered are the ones opened by the late Dr. Wash Fithian, and are now verifying the claims made by our well-known departed citizen when he was interested in them.

Alexander Benton, who lives on Rural Route 1, Fort Edward, N. Y., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is my best early friend. It cured me of asthma six years ago. It has also performed a wonderful cure of incipient consumption for my son's wife. The first bottle ended the terrible cough, and this accomplished, the other symptoms left one by one, until she was perfectly well." Dr. King's New Discovery.

"An' as true as I tell you, doctor dear,
I'm feelin' finer than ever I've been!"

"The poor consumptive should not be the victim of experiment, as he often is, but the moment the dread disease manifests its presence he should be given Bo-schee's German Syrup—a pure, non-alcoholic medicine that is made specially for the cure of consumption, and has a world-wide fame as a certain remedy for catarrh, colds, coughs, croup, sore throat and all bronchial affections in old and young. It is sold in all civilized countries, and has been famous as a consumption cure for almost half a century.
